

RULE XXV

Records and Reports

1
3 Section A. Official roster of employees

4 The Personnel Director shall maintain a complete record of employees showing for each: name,
5 social security number, job class, appointment date, status, rate of pay, and subsequent changes in 6 each, and such other information concerning appointment, status, pay, or service, as may be 7 desirable. The form and manner of maintaining such information shall be determined by the 8 Personnel Director.

9 Section B. Authority to maintain other records and files

- 10 1. The Division of Personnel shall be authorized to maintain such other personnel records and files as 11 may be desirable and as required elsewhere by these rules.
12 2. Employees or Appointing Authorities shall furnish information or reports which in the judgment of 13 the Civil Service Commission or Personnel Director are essential to the successful operation of the 14 merit system.

15 Section C. Reports from departments

- 16 1. Each Appointing Authority shall report changes in positions or any other personnel changes to the 17 Division of Personnel in such form, and together with such supporting or pertinent information as 18 the Personnel Director may prescribe in conformity with these rules.
19 2. Forms or supplementary instructions to Appointing Authorities shall explain which changes call for 20 prior approval of the Personnel Director before they may become effective, which require reports
21 when made, and which need to be reported in advance of the end of the payroll period.

22 Section D. Access to records

- 23 1. The Commission and the Personnel Director shall have access to examine departmental personnel
24 records, documents, and papers which will aid them in the discharge of their duties.
25 2. Appointing Authorities shall have access to the personnel records maintained by the Division of 26 Personnel, provided nothing herein shall be so construed as to impair the confidential nature of 27 examination records and material.
28 3. Employees shall have access to their own personnel files.

29 Section E. Records closed to public inspectors

- 30 1. The following records of the Commission and the Division of Personnel are closed records pursuant 31 to Chapter 610 Revised Statutes of Missouri:
32 a. Applications and resumes of applicants for County employment;
33 b. Employment references;
34 c. Reoccurring testing and examination materials;
35 d. Eligibility records;
36 e. Personnel records cards of specific employees;
37 f. Employee grievance files;
38 g. Employee complaint and consultation files;
39 h. EEO change files relating to specific employees;
40 i. Transcripts and exhibits of employee appeal hearings;
41 j. Reoccurring employee training examinations for certificate programs;

Rule XXV: Records and Reports

- 42 k. any and all records relating to the hiring, firing, disciplining or promoting an employee of the
- 43 County except that any vote on hiring, firing, disciplining or promoting shall be made available
- 44 to the public in the time and manner prescribed by Section 610.021 (3) R.S. MO.;
- 45 l. files relating to legal actions, causes of action or litigation involving the Commission or its
- 46 members or involving the Division of Personnel or its staff or which relate to an action taken by
- 47 the Commission or the Division of Personnel;
- 48 m. individually identifiable personnel records, performance ratings or records pertaining to
- 49 employees or applicants for employment, except that the names, positions, salaries and
- 50 lengths of service of officials and employees once employed shall be available to the public;
- 51 n. preparation, including any discussions or work product, on behalf of St. Louis County or its
- 52 representatives for negotiations with employee groups; and
- 53 o. software codes for electronic data processing and documentation relating to employee records
- 54 and data.
- 55 2. Nothing in this Section E. shall preclude the Commission from closing, by resolution, other records
- 56 or class of records as authorized by law.
- 57 3. Nothing in this Section E. shall preclude the Commission from opening, by resolution, any record or
- 58 class of records.

59 Section F. Preservation of records

60 Official personnel records, and minutes of Commission meetings shall be retained permanently.
61 Other records in the Division of Personnel shall be retained in accordance with the Division of 62 Personnel Records Retention Policy. Any records of the Commission or of the Division of Personnel
63 not to be retained shall only be destroyed as authorized by Sections 109.500109.510 R.S. MO and 64 Sections 101.01010.
